Music Delivery

Covid-19 Risk Assessment

Week beginning 4th January 2021

MUSIC DELIVERY COVID-19 IN-SCHOOL ACTIVITY RISK ASSESSMENT

One-to-one classes

Risk	What could happen? (negative)	Steps in place to reduce risk
Infection	Students or teacher could introduce covid19 into lesson, or carry it out unknowingly	Disinfect hands before and after lesson. Wipe all surfaces wi disinfectant wipes before and after lesson. Follow Covid19 risk assessment for the school.
Safeguarding	Safeguarding concern could go unnoticed by other staff	Ensure that all safeguarding precautions still stand under the arrangements. e.g. If the room that the tutor is in is in an isolated part of the a member of staff should relocate to work nearby.
Surface transmission via instruments	Transmission of disease / infection	Tutors and pupils should keep to their own instruments at all times. If the tutor does need to check or mend an instrument should wear gloves supplied by the school. For all other instruments, the instrument should be wiped wit disinfectant wipe before fixing and then on return to the pupil
		If a tutor needs to demonstrate on the piano, the keys should disinfected before and after.
		Drum tutors should have their own sticks for demonstration purposes.
Airborne transmission	Transmission of disease / infection	Any vocal or wind instrument should only be played at a mini distance of 3 meters from any other person. Individuals shou remain socially distanced at all times.

Surface transmission via sheet music	Transmission of disease / infection	Pupils should make any markings or notes themselves, usin pencil from their own pencil case, in accordance with Covid1 assessment Pupils and staff should avoid sharing sheet music Songs mainly taught by ear where possible If music is needed, pupils to retain their own copy of a music and keep it with other individual school equipm
Airborne transmission – further precautions.	Transmission of disease / infection	Social distancing should be adhered to when singing takes p with – if possible – doors to be open to support ventilation.
Infection of people in vulnerable category	Transmission of disease / infection	School to reconsider whether music lessons are appropriate these individuals. If yes, then use of plexiglass and face mas should be considered, on top of the precautions outlined abo